

CSBS Statement on CFPB's Announcement to Reconsider Public Orders Registry

Apr 14, 2025

Washington, D.C. – Statement by Conference of State Bank Supervisors (CSBS) President and CEO Brandon Milhorn on the CFPB's announcement regarding its Public Orders Registry:

"State regulators applaud the CFPB for its decision to limit enforcement and supervision relative to its Public Orders Registry. A significant number of covered public enforcement actions are already reported through the Nationwide Multistate Licensing System & Registry \(NMLS\). The CFPB Public Orders Registry is a duplicative system that will cause unnecessary industry burden, redundant reporting, and consumer confusion. The Public Orders Registry should be scrapped as soon as possible."
